

SMITHKLINE BEECHAM CLINICAL LABORATORY

Farmington Hills, Michigan

This 47,000 s.f. clinical laboratory included the design and construction of sophisticated sanitary, water and de-ionized water systems to comply with the strict laws governing the handling and testing of medical samples.

A specialized HVAC system was designed to handle potential airborne pathogens. The design and construction of all laboratory stations was also included as part of the project.

Facility Type	Office / Medical Facility
Client	SmithKline Beecham
Size	47,200 s.f.